

The Bisbee Daily Review

Associated Press Special Leased Wire Service

WEATHER

Saturday and Sunday fair; slightly warmer temperature.

VOL. 21, NO. 197.

THE BISBEE DAILY REVIEW, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1918.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

PRINCE OF MONACO GRILLS WILHELM HOHENZOLLERN FOR POLICIES

WILSON HONOR GUEST AT BANQUET OF STATE IN BUCKINGHAM PALACE

Formality and Observance of quaint Customs of Other Centuries Mark Event

Famous Gold Plate, Valued at $15,000,000 Used in Serving Meal

(By Review Leased Wire)
LONDON, Dec. 27.—No more regal setting ever had been arranged in Buckingham palace than that which greeted President and Mrs. Wilson when they were escorted into the banquet hall tonight for the precedent-breaking state dinner.

Every royal formality which had attended epochal occasions at the palace for 200 or 300 years was carried out before and during the banquet. President Wilson with Queen Mary led the procession into the dining hall, preceded by officials of the palace, splendidly costumed, bearing wands and walking backward, and making obeisance to the guests.

Presidents Escorts Queen.
Immediately behind the president and the queen came King George and Mrs. Wilson. They were followed by members of the royal family.

At the head of the table 12 persons were seated, with King George in the middle. President Wilson sat at the king's right and Mrs. Wilson on his left. To the right of President Wilson was Queen Mary and then the French ambassador, Princess Christian, the Spanish ambassador and Princess Patricia, daughter of the Duke of Connaught. At Mrs. Wilson's left sat Princess Mary, the Italian ambassador, Princess Beatrice and the Japanese ambassador in the order named. The American ambassador, John W. Davis, had the first place at a side rectangular table on President Wilson's right.

Introduced to Guests.
Prior to the dinner, President and Mrs. Wilson were escorted from the apartments to the great white drawing room, where the royal family had gathered with their other guests.
These guests were presented to President and Mrs. Wilson and the dinner party immediately proceeded to the dining hall.

Solid Gold Service.
The scene was one of splendor. In the dining saloon was a great collection of solid gold plate and huge gold ornaments valued at $15,000,000.
These had been brought from the vaults for the occasion. One of three buffets contained pieces of plate too large or otherwise too cumbersome for use. These included one piece of great size taken from the wreck of the Spanish armada.

In color, the gold-laden table blended with the decorations in the hall.

(Continued on Page Two)

COPPER MINING COMPANIES SEEK RETURN OF FUNDS

Fifteen Corporations File Suit Against Government to Recover Income Tax Payments

(By Review Leased Wire) BOSTON, Dec. 27.—Suits were begun in the federal court here today by 15 copper mining companies to recover a total of $384,000, which it is claimed the government illegally assessed as income tax between the years 1913 and 1915.

The suits are the result of differences between the government and officers of the corporation, as to what is capital and what is income, as applied to copper mines. It is understood that the principle involved will affect far larger sums, which the government collected for last year and the year before.

The largest amount sought in the suits is $125,000, by the Calumet and Hecla Mining company, of this city.
Others include the Champion Copper company, Alouette Mining company, St.
Mary's Mineral Land company, Copper Range company, Assinnee Baltic Mining company, Ahmeek Mining company, Copper Range Copper company, Tri-mount Mining company and Osceola Consolidated. The cases will come up in the March term of the federal court.

Huns Plan Form Of Government Similar to Ours

GENEVA, Dec. 27.—(Havas).— Reports received from Germany indicate that the present government there is to constitute a federal republic on virtually the same plan as the United States. There would be a congress composed of two chambers, a volk-haus, or popular chamber, which would be the chamber of representatives, and a staatenhaus, or chamber of the states which take the part of a senate.

The president would be elected by the people and would not be responsible before congress.

The border states would be completely abolished and the privileges of the nobility abolished and Germany would annex German-Austria.

DISAPPEARANCE OF LETTER IS DISCOVERED

Important Government Document, Bearing Alleged Hun Code Notation, Last Seen by Defense Counsel

(By Review Leased Wire) CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—District Attorney Charles F. Cline caused a stir in the trial of five socialist leaders charged with violation of the espionage law today, when he reported to Federal Judge Landis that an important letter introduced in evidence by the government had mysteriously disappeared. The document was described as the German code letter read to the jury in connection with the testimony of Pvt. Arnold Schiller, one of the government's principal witnesses, who told of plans for an underground railway to smuggle socialist draft evaders into Mexico.

About "Underground Road" The missing letter is alleged to have been written to Schiller by William F.
Krusse, national secretary of the Young People's Socialist league and one of the defendants in the case.
Schiller testified that a notation made by Krusse on the bottom of the letter was in a German code used by socialist officers in Douglas. Wunder then showed up in Maricopa county and was arrested for grand larceny, escaped jail at the same time that William Hileman of this city made his getaway, and was caught at Yuma and was then sentenced to serve a term in the penitentiary. He was sent to Clifton to work and made his escape, then was returned to Florence where he was again made a trusty. Miss Laura Foreman is the younger girl, aged 19, and the other is Mrs. Grace Landis of Phoenix, aged 23. The other man, Emmett McDaniels, also 23 years old, was sent up from this county for horse stealing.

The party was at Happy Jack Ash-worth's store, between here and the Huachuca mountain, on Thursday morning at 5 o'clock. They awoke the proprietor and purchased 14 gallons of gasoline and in payment for which they gave him a check on which the name of L. Harper, a rancher living about six miles west of Huachuca sidling, is alleged to have been forged.
With the party was a man named Brown of this district, who knows Wunder. Brown met them about 12 miles the other side of Huachuca sid-lings in the fight against the enforcement of the selective draft law. Krusse denied having made the notation.

Copied by Defense
District Attorney Cline told Judge Landis that the letter disappeared soon after it had been inspected and copied by one of the attorneys for the defense. The attorney in question emphatically denied all knowledge of how the document was lost. He said he placed it back in the pile of exhibits after he had finished it. The government has a copy of the letter but is anxious to find the original.
Judge Landis questioned the attorneys in regard to the incident after the jury had been told to leave the court room but decided there was nothing he could do.

Krusse Denies Everything William F. Krusse, the third of the five defendants to testify in his own defense, testified that he had no knowledge of the letter. (Continued on Page Two)

WILSON'S DAY IS BUSY ONE; CONFERENCES

ENVIRONMENT OF PRESIDENT IN ENGLAND YESTERDAY QUIETER THAN PREVIOUS DAY BUT FILLED WITH ACTIVITIES NONE THE LESS UNTIL LATE NIGHT

CONFERS WITH LEADERS

FIVE HOURS OF CONFERENCES WITH LLOYD GEORGE AND BAL-FOUR; PAPERS FILLED WITH PRAISES OF AMERICAN EXECU-TIVE; UNVEILS PORTRAIT

LONDON, Dec. 27.—The environment of President Wilson's second day in England was quieter than that of the first day. The only ceremonial event was a state banquet in Buckingham palace tonight, which was notable not only as a spectacle such as probably no other court in Europe can provide setting for, now that the throne of Russia, Germany and Austria have disappeared, but from the representative character of the men summoned to greet the president.

Gathering of Notables.
Besides the members of the royal family, the official world was represented by the foreign ambassadors to the court of St. James, the heads of the government, present and past chiefs of the army and navy, colonial officials and members of the royal household. There also were present dignitaries of the Church of England, representatives of universities and men high in the worlds of literature, art and journalism.

President Wilson, escorted Queen Mary into the banquet hall, while King George gave his arm to Mrs.
Wilson.

Chiefly Working Day.
Today, however, was chiefly a working day with the president. Five hours were taken up by two conferences with David Lloyd George, the British prime minister, and Arthur J.
Balfour, foreign secretary, on peace problems. This was the fulfillment of the main purpose of the president's pilgrimage to London.

For three hours in the morning President Wilson sat with Mr. Lloyd George and the foreign secretary before the open fireplace in the president's apartment in Buckingham palace. The second meeting was in the cabinet room of the premier's residence in Downing street. The two sessions were broken by a luncheon at which Mr. Lloyd George gathered a dozen leading British statesmen of the conservative, liberal and labor parties.

Unveils Washington's Portrait.
There was a picturesque incident after the luncheon when President Wilson unveiled a portrait of George Washington, presented to the president's residence by Lord Albemarle.

The interest of Londoners in President Wilson continues. Crowds outside the palace and in Downing street awaited his coming all day, notwithstanding the rain, and cheered his every appearance. Each time they saw President Wilson they demanded a speech, but each time the president shook his head negatively.

Papers Pay Tributes.
The newspapers today were filled with tributes to the president, which undoubtedly have been the cause of a heightening in his personal popularity in London.

It is expected that another great gathering will witness the progress to the Guild Hall tomorrow to receive the address of the lord mayor.

DECLINES INVITATION.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—In declining an invitation of the mayor of Northampton to visit that town, President Wilson wrote:
"I would, if I could, come to Northampton, not only with pleasure, but with the feeling that I was making a pious pilgrimage to that particular part of England most directly asso-

(Continued on Page Two)

POLES DEMAND PASSAGE FOR THEIR TROOPS

Ultimatum Sent to German Generals Demanding Passage Over Railway Held by Huns to Vilna

WARSAW, Dec. 27.—(By the Associated Press).—The Polish government has issued an ultimatum to German troops demanding the right of passage by Polish troops over German-held railways to Vilna, which city is threatened by the bolsheviks.

The ultimatum was sent to German Generals Hoffman and von Falkenheyn by General Shchetskij, chief of the Polish general staff, who acted under instructions given him by Gen.
Joseph Pilsudski, military head of the Polish government.

Due to the difficulties of communicating with Berlin, the Germans asked an extension of the time in which an answer to the ultimatum was required.

The Poles also demand the linking up of the Polish and Lithuanian railways southwest of Bialystok for a distance of 12 kilometers.

If the Berlin answer is unfavorable the Poles are expected to use all their forces to prevent the fall of Vilna to the bolsheviks. They have requested the aid of the French commander at Buda Pest, urging a joint expedition.

MAJORITY MAY RETIRE.

BERLIN, Thursday, Dec. 27.—(By the Associated Press).—As a result of today's deliberations it is believed in some quarters the majority socialists will retire from the cabinet and leave the independents in full control of the government. The cabinet was in secret session the greater part of the day. The leading independents in the government also were in conference, and this gave rise to a rumor that Hugo Haase, the leader of the independent socialists, would be called on to organize a new government.

The crisis is likely to continue for a day or two and may meet with an unforeseen solution. Today passed quietly in Berlin.

TRANSMITS STATE BOUNDARIES.

BUDA PEST, Dec. 27.—Colonel Vils-ch, chief of the allied military mission, has transmitted to Count Michael Gorol, president of the Hungarian national council, the boundaries of the Czechoslovak state as fixed provisionally by the commander-in-chief of the eastern armies until the decision of the peace conference.

They are as follows: Beginning along the northern boundary of Hungary to the western Hungarian boundary, to the Danube, along the Danube to Expel, to the city of Rimaszombat, thence in a straight line to the river Ung, to Mount Uzak.

PLANE REACHES INDIANAPOLIS EN ROUTE TO EAST

(By Review Leased Wire)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 27.— The first of the three airplanes flying from Houston, Tex., to Detroit, Mich., to map out aerial mail routes, arrived here late this afternoon from Belleville, Ill.

Lt. D. M. Jones and Lieutenant Hill made the 230 miles in two hours, being compelled to fly very low because of the snowflakes encountered.

They will await the arrival of the other two airplanes before starting the next leg of their journey to Dayton, Ohio.

HALF BILLION NEEDED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—An appropriation of at least $500,000,000 for the food administration's grain corporation, which will be charged with carrying out the government wheat price guarantees for the 1919 crop, will be provided in a bill to be introduced in congress early next month. Chairman Lever, of the house agricultural committee, said tonight that an effort would be made to have the measure brought up in the house at an early date.

"Go to Hell With My Compliments," Wires Hoover To Hun Leaders Who Treated Belgians Cruelly

(By Review Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Food Administrator Hoover, in Europe arranging relief for the peoples of the war-devastated territories, has refused in emphatic terms to discuss German food conditions with Baron von der Lancken and Dr.
Rieth, who sought a meeting with the food administrator.

A message from Paris today said these two German officials

M'ARTHUR IS PAID TRIBUTE BY SUPERIOR

MAJ. GEN. MENOHER WRITES LETTER URGING PROMOTION FOR OFFICER COMMANDING
84TH BRIGADE OF RAINBOW DI-VISION FOR BRAVERY, SKILL

LETTER SENT PERSHING

COPY REACHING WASHINGTON TELLS OF REMARKABLE STRA-TÉGIC VICTORIES BOTH IN DE-FENSE AND ASSAULT DURING SPRING, SUMMER AND FALL

(By Review Leased Wire)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—A striking tribute to the courage and skill of Brig. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, commanding the 84th brigade of the 42nd (Rainbow) division, was given by Maj.
Gen. Charles T. Menoher, formerly in command of the division, in a letter to General Pershing urging for a second time the promotion of General MacArthur to the rank of major general.

A copy of the communication has just reached Washington. It reviewed the record of General MacArthur and disclosed that the young officer, a major of engineers when the United States entered the war, had been twice wounded, had been decorated by both the French and American governments for personal gallantry in action and in addition had been twice recommended for the French Legion of Honor.

Tribute to MacArthur.

"I do not feel that I am free to assume another command," General Menoher wrote General Pershing, on the eve of his transfer to the command of the Sixth army corps, "without recording the services rendered by Gen. Douglas MacArthur. The contributions made to our military establishment by this general officer have already had far-reaching effects.
He has stood for the actual physical command of large bodies of troops in battle, not for a day, but days' duration, and I believe, has actually commanded larger bodies of troops in the battle line than any other officer in our army with, in each instance, conspicuous success."

Supreme in Field.

"He has developed, combined and applied the use of infantry and correlated armies with an effect upon the enemy, a husbandry of his own forces and means and a resourcefulness which no other American commander in the field has. His efforts have been untiring, uninterrupted and without the least regard for his personal safety at each of the many times when he felt his personal leadership required his presence in the thick of the struggle."

Took Drive's Brunt.

The itemized account of General MacArthur's services included the statement that the 42nd division "sustained the full brunt" of the German drive in the Champagne last July, and that it was the skill and personal supervision of this officer which made possible a great victory. Later, during the Alsne-Marne offensive, the 42nd was driving toward the Vesle when an incident occurred which General Menoher described as follows:

Undertook Pursuit Quickly.

"At the end of this phase of the division's employment, when it had labored night and day for over a week and was brought to a pause by vigorous resistance to the assault from extremely powerful positions, occurred an example of leadership and the high qualities of command which I consider as unequalled. General MacArthur, himself on the advanced line at a time when the American first army corps had not ordered the division advance, diagnosed the situation as one in which the enemy with which he had but an hour before been in contact, had retreated in advance of orders and without de-

(Continued on Page Two)

MAKES PUBLIC REMARKABLE DOCUMENT IN WHICH UPBRAIDS FORMER MONARCH

Government Not To Flood Market
With Supplies

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—L. H. Hartman, who is looking after the surplus stocks of the government, told Chicago business men at a luncheon today that the goods will not be dumped on the market. They will instead be disposed of in a way to leave the general market unimpaired, he said.

The government has 1500 warehouses more or less full of goods.
Already 800,000 pairs of shoes have been assigned to Russia.

Among the articles which Uncle Sam has in store are 70,000,000 cans of tomatoes, 2,000,000 cans of corn, 43,000,000 cans of beans, 16,000,000 pairs of shoes, 40,000, 000 suits of summer underwear, 10,000,000 pounds of horseshoes, 2,000,000 hair brushes, 5000 motor trucks and many other supplies.

CONVICTS ARE CAPTURED NEAR SMELTER CITY

After Race, Starting Monday at Florence, Men are Taken Into Custody by Military Patrol

(By Review Leased Wire)

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Dec. 27.—After successfully evading pursuing posses of four convicts for more than four days, two escaped convicts from the state penitentiary at Florence, were taken into custody here tonight by the military authorities in the act of attempting to cross the international line into Mexico, in an automobile, and have been lodged in the city jail, together with another man and two women.

According to the officials, one of the women in the automobile fired point blank at the border guard when he commanded them to halt, but the party was finally overpowered by the cavalryman, who singlehanded, lined up his prisoners to await the coming of assistance.

The captured men are J. C. Wunder, alias Frank Warden, and Emmett Mc-Daniels, escaped convicts, and Pat McDaniels, a brother of the last named. "The women in the party are Laura Foreman, aged 17, of Florence, and Grace Barnes of Scottsdale, Ariz.

The automobile in which the convicts were traveling was stocked with enough canned goods, etc., to provide food for the party for at least two weeks.

The women in the party did not appear to take the matter seriously, according to the officials, the kidnapping scare is absolutely without foundation, because upon the arrival of the officials upon the scene to take the party into custody and handcuff the men, the alleged kidnapped girl made the remark: "If you place the cuffs on that man you will have to do likewise with me."

Scandal again rears an ugly head at the state penitentiary. Developments indicate that clandestine meetings and contact between convicts under the petted Hunt "honor system" and women and girls in and about Florence has been common practice, facilitated by the use of the state automobiles employed on joy rides.

These disclosures come in connection with the escape of the two "honor" convicts who have in their company two mere girls. The older of the men, Jack Wunder, is well known in the Warren district and last was heard of here when he stole a horse and saddle from the Country club a little over a year ago. He was supposed to have been killed across the international boundary below Douglas by Mexican officers when they caught the horse and returned the outfit to ing where his machine had broken down. The party picked him up and brought him that far and then stated they were going on to Douglas. Brown did not know anything about the escape of the men and that the party was being hunted until he arrived here late Thursday. He informed the officers and Sheriff Guy Welch and

(Continued on Page Two)

Recalls Conversation and Intimate Interviews Which Place Blame for War

Ex-Kaiser Sought Excuse for War Instead of Making Germany Great in Peace

(By Review Leased Wire)

PARIS, Dec. 27.—Prince Albert of Monaco has given to the Associated Press a remarkable letter he has addressed to former Emperor William which promises to rival the notable revelations made by Prince Lichnowsky, German ambassador at London, before the outbreak of the war.

The letter gives textually many conversations with the ex-emperor on his war projects and also a number of letters addressed to the prince as "My Dear Cousin" and signed "Your Highness Devoted Friend, Cousin and Admirer, William II."

Conversations Cover Years

The conversations cover years of close intimacy during which Prince Albert was a frequent guest of the emperor at Berlin and at Kiel and at the emperor's summer palace on the island of Corfu. The prince's letter "to His Majesty William II" addresses the former German ruler directly throughout as "Sire."

It recalls their conversations in which the emperor expressed his ideas for Germany's future and then gives the successive steps in which he yielded to the military element.

Explains His Purpose

Explaining the purpose of his letter, Prince Albert writes:
"I speak with severity after 17 years of effort to enlighten you, the only path which would maintain the rival nations within the limits of justice and dignity and would reunite in peace the interests of France and Germany. I speak with firmness of soul in revolt against the spectacle of the plot to force to annihilate law and honor, all the beauties of civilization and all the conquests of man over the brute."

It was open to you to become the greatest figure of all time if you had directed your power to repairing the injustice weighing on Europe and giving your high authority to the ideals of right, justice and peace to which mankind now is eagerly turning. But instead you maintained the brutal customs of a military monarchy until Germany, which could have won world power based on civilization has dragged you down in its false ideas and blind folly.

Recalling to the ex-emperor their conversations, the prince says:
"I was deeply impressed with the

(Continued on Page Two)

PICHON STATED HIS OWN OPINION BELIEF IN U. S.

French Foreign Minister Said No Immediate Intervention in Russia Likely; Recent Events

(By Review Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Officials of the American government here, expressed the belief today that Stephen Pichon, the French foreign minister, was stating his own opinion, and not the policy of the French government, when he said there would be no immediate intervention in Russia by the allied government.

The Russian situation has been the subject of earnest discussion by the representatives at Paris of the associated nations, but so far as is known here, none of the governments had put forward any definite plans. The understanding here is that the whole subject will be left to the peace conference.

Additional reports of the chaotic conditions in bolshevik-controlled European Russia, reached the state department today. One account said the loyal militia of Esthonia and Livonia, poorly equipped and with little or no training was in no condition to withstand the attacks of the bolsheviki. Some of the bolshevik forces in this section were said to be well sup-

(Continued on Page Two)